

Historical Versailles

Kings, Queens, statues and things ... travel back in time and discover the rich historical and cultural heritage of Versailles: its buildings, parks, breathtaking gardens and the famous Palace of Versailles. Rare art collections, special concerts, and open-air sound and light performances are only a few of the treasures you will uncover on this historical adventure.

Minimum time: 1-2 days in person; 1-2 days online.

Requirements:

1. Prepare a Versailles scrapbook of souvenirs, tickets, photos and drawings while completing the patch requirements.

2. Research the Palace and its history and write a paragraph or draw a picture in your scrapbook to illustrate what you learned. In addition, research one of the following:
 - a. Marie-Antoinette and the kings who lived there;
 - b. The system of the fountains;
 - c. Learn about the architecture of Versailles:
 - i. What makes the architecture distinct?
 - ii. How have climate, culture or lifestyle shaped the architecture?
 - iii. What do the homes and buildings tell you about the people who live there?
 - d. Learn about the community of Versailles:
 - i. Open a community telephone book to any page or search the "pages blanches" online. How many different family names are on the page?
 - ii. Open to another page. How many different family names are there?
 - iii. Find a name you think is unusual or interesting. Imagine the family history of a person with that name and write a short story, poem or diary entries for that family.
OR Create a song or drawing about the exciting things that may have happened in that person's life.
OR Find out the origin of the name. Record what you discovered about its history in your scrapbook.

3. Visit the inside of Versailles Palace. Download Rick Steves' free audio tour or rent an audio tour. Find the following:
 - a. Chapel: Where did the King sit? Which way did his subjects face?
